Constellation Energy Partners Receives Termination Notice Related to Management Services Agreement

HOUSTON—(BUSINESS WIRE)—June 17, 2009—Constellation Energy Partners (NYSE Arca: CEP) today announced that its management services provider, Constellation Energy Partners Management, LLC, which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Constellation Energy Group, Inc. (“Constellation”), has notified CEP that it will terminate the Management Services Agreement (“MSA”) effective Dec. 15, 2009.

“Constellation’s termination of the MSA is an event that we have planned for since last year,” said Stephen Brunner, the company’s President and Chief Executive Officer. “In anticipation of this event, we have undertaken efforts to hire key personnel and transition services away from Constellation in an orderly manner. Our operating expense forecast for 2009 takes into account the incremental costs associated with standing up the company, and we expect to complete this process by the MSA termination date.”

CEP will seek approval from its lenders of a plan for managing its business after termination of the MSA as required under the terms of the company’s credit agreements. The lenders may not unreasonably withhold or delay approval of the plan.

Additional information concerning the MSA can be found in the company’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and on the company’s Web site (<http://www.constellationenergypartners.com>).
